

Scavenger Hunt

My name is _____

Welcome to Heritage Hill! As you explore the park today use this scavenger hunt to learn some fun facts about Northeast Wisconsin and become a real-life historian!

Our Fur Trade Area is also known as "La Baye," the French name for what local body of water?

In 1830 there was a trial of an American Indian chief from the Menominee Tribe. His name was:

During the trial, the American judge ruled in favor of Menominee law and the chief went free.

Fur trading was an important industry, or business, in Northeast Wisconsin in the 1700s. What was the most popular animal trapped and traded during this time?

The fur from this animal was used to make:

How were the buildings in Fort Howard used? Use the signs in the park to help you match the name with the purpose!

- Guardhouse This building is where soldiers stood watch, prisoners were jailed, and the Commanding Officer ran the Fort.
- Hospital This building housed active duty soldiers and their families.
- Officer's Quarters Soldiers reported to this room to receive their daily orders, which often included chopping wood, hauling water, and building roads.
- Detached Kitchen If you were an unmarried enlisted soldier, you reported to this room for your meals.
- Schoolhouse This building is where soldiers could go for medical care, although sometimes treatment did more harm than good.
- Orderly Room Located outside the walls of the Fort, military and civilian children could go here to learn.

If I lived at Fort Howard in 1836 I would want to work as a:

- Soldier Musician
- Cook Doctor
- Schoolteacher OTHER

CHECKLIST

- I saluted a soldier at Fort Howard.
- I saw someone making something—and even helped them, too!
- I dressed like a person from the past and took a selfie.
- BONUS! I shared my photos on social media and tagged @HeritageHillGB on

Scavenger Hunt

My name is _____

Welcome to Heritage Hill! As you explore the park today use this scavenger hunt to learn some fun facts about Northeast Wisconsin and become a real-life historian!

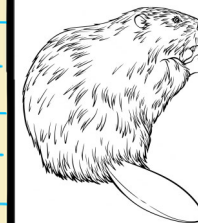

Our Fur Trade Area is also known as "La Baye," the French name for what local body of water?

In 1830 there was a trial of an American Indian chief from the Menominee Tribe. His name was:

During the trial, the American judge ruled in favor of Menominee law and the chief went free.

Fur trading was an important industry, or business, in Northeast Wisconsin in the 1700s. What was the most popular animal trapped and traded during this time?

The fur from this animal was used to make:

How were the buildings in Fort Howard used? Use the signs in the park to help you match the name with the purpose!

- Guardhouse This building is where soldiers stood watch, prisoners were jailed, and the Commanding Officer ran the Fort.
- Hospital This building housed active duty soldiers and their families.
- Officer's Quarters Soldiers reported to this room to receive their daily orders, which often included chopping wood, hauling water, and building roads.
- Detached Kitchen If you were an unmarried enlisted soldier, you reported to this room for your meals.
- Schoolhouse This building is where soldiers could go for medical care, although sometimes treatment did more harm than good.
- Orderly Room Located outside the walls of the Fort, military and civilian children could go here to learn.

If I lived at Fort Howard in 1836 I would want to work as a:

- Soldier Musician
- Cook Doctor
- Schoolteacher OTHER

CHECKLIST

- I saluted a soldier at Fort Howard.
- I saw someone making something—and even helped them, too!
- I dressed like a person from the past and took a selfie.
- BONUS! I shared my photos on social media and tagged @HeritageHillGB on

Visit the Growing Community area of the park and match the facts with the buildings! Use the signs in the park to help you!

Blacksmith Shop This building was used for 3 things over the years: building wagons and carriages, repairing cars, and creating ornamental iron work.

Hose Company This is a reproduction building which means it was built in the recent past onsite at Heritage Hill to help visitors like you learn about life in the 19th century.

Library German immigrants created a volunteer team that eventually built this building to help improve public safety in Green Bay.

Print Shop Sorry ladies, this building was built only for men - aren't you glad things have changed?

Who lived in the Farmhouse?

The settlers who built our Farm were immigrants, people who came from another country to live here. What country were they from?

Hint: It's over 4,000 miles away!

Visit the Agriculture Exhibit in the Dairy Barn and answer the following questions:

What was Wisconsin's main crop in the early 1800s?

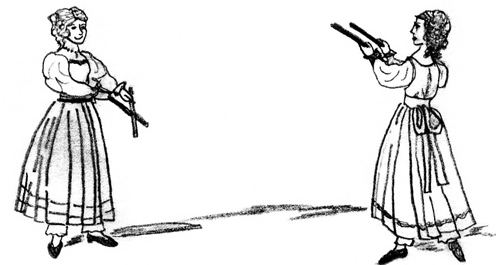

Today, Wisconsin is famous for another farm product that has given us the nickname of America's...

Did you play all the historic games today? Circle your favorite!

- | | | |
|----------------|-------------------|--------------|
| Pick-up Sticks | Draughts | Dominos |
| Jacob's Ladder | Tabletop Ninepins | Cup and Ball |
| Spinning Tops | Hoops | Graces |

Did kids 100 years ago have more fun than kids today? YES NO MAYBE

What was your favorite place that you visited today? Draw it here!

If I lived in the past I would want to live in the:

- Fur Trade Era
- Fort Howard Period
- Late 1800s Growing Community
- Rural Early 20th Century
- Other _____

because....

Visit the Growing Community area of the park and match the facts with the buildings! Use the signs in the park to help you!

Blacksmith Shop This building was used for 3 things over the years: building wagons and carriages, repairing cars, and creating ornamental iron work.

Hose Company This is a reproduction building which means it was built in the recent past onsite at Heritage Hill to help visitors like you learn about life in the 19th century.

Library German immigrants created a volunteer team that eventually built this building to help improve public safety in Green Bay.

Print Shop Sorry ladies, this building was built only for men - aren't you glad things have changed?

Who lived in the Farmhouse?

The settlers who built our Farm were immigrants, people who came from another country to live here. What country were they from?

Hint: It's over 4,000 miles away!

Visit the Agriculture Exhibit in the Dairy Barn and answer the following questions:

What was Wisconsin's main crop in the early 1800s?

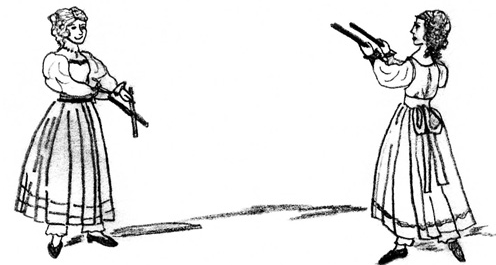

Today, Wisconsin is famous for another farm product that has given us the nickname of America's...

Did you play all the historic games today? Circle your favorite!

- | | | |
|----------------|-------------------|--------------|
| Pick-up Sticks | Draughts | Dominos |
| Jacob's Ladder | Tabletop Ninepins | Cup and Ball |
| Spinning Tops | Hoops | Graces |

Did kids 100 years ago have more fun than kids today? YES NO MAYBE

What was your favorite place that you visited today? Draw it here!

If I lived in the past I would want to live in the:

- Fur Trade Era
- Fort Howard Period
- Late 1800s Growing Community
- Rural Early 20th Century
- Other _____

because....